

Announcing a free landowner workshop:

Managing Your Land and Its Legacy: Opportunities and Options

March 4, 2016 at Jones County Civic Center, Trenton, NC

Multiple state agencies and organizations will gather to provide information on the numerous financial, educational and technical support programs available for farm and forest owners.

This workshop will include:

- Presentations on natural resource management and land conservation programs and opportunities for farm and forest owners;
- Details on financial and technical assistance programs -- eligibility, how to apply, requirements, and more;
- Attestations from NC farmers and landowners about their management and stewardship journeys and the benefits received;
- An Agency Showcase with the opportunity to visit informally with agency representatives;
- A free copy of the publication Conserving Working Lands: A land legacy handbook with tools and resources to guide your conservation planning journey
- Lunch and refreshments

There is no registration fee for the workshop, however advance registration is required so that we may adequately plan for lunches and space. Please visit: workinglands.wordpress.ncsu.edu for more details including the full agenda, and to register.

Please share this announcement with others who may be interested.

This workshop is sponsored by the NC Sentinel Landscapes Partnership and hosted by NC Extension Forestry.
